The age limit for Ultimate Sanda is 18 to 45. In the adults division, Light Contact Sanda for beginner and intermediate levels only and Ultimate Sanda for advanced level only. Children 17 and under can only compete in Light Contact Sanda, and they are categorized by age divisions only, not by weight divisions. If a competitor is the only person in his/her division, the competitor will have to move up in level or weight.

Short Weapon Sparring – Competitors are categorized by age only (not by levels or weight classes)

Ultimate Sanda Competitor

(We recommend you, the Ultimate Sanda competitor, to submit a martial arts resume of yourself, including your name, number of years you have studied martial arts, names of your masters, names of your schools, events/matches you have fought, rankings in any organizations, or any other relevant information related to martial arts and your fighting accomplishments. Also, include a picture of yourself. By submitting a good resume, your resume may be announced during the competition and you may be eligible to receive special prizes. Please write down your resume below and in the back of this page if additional space is needed, or attach your resume along with this application form, and include a picture of yourself.)
